

A promotional poster for the Memphis Academy of Science & Engineering Middle School football team's 2022-23 season. The background features a collage of football players in action, wearing red jerseys and white helmets. The text is arranged in a central column of dates and game locations, with each date in a black circle and each location in a white brushstroke box. The school's logo, a large red 'M', is in the top left corner.
